NOTICE OF PUBLIC REVIEW PERIOD FOR THE 2019-2020 UNIFIED PLANNING WORK PROGRAM (UPWP) DRAFT DOCUMENT

The Syracuse Metropolitan Transportation Council (SMTC) has begun the official public comment period on the draft 2019-2020 Unified Planning Work Program (UPWP) document. The SMTC is the designated Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) for all of Onondaga County and a small portion of Oswego and Madison Counties. The UPWP is the required document that details the planning activities and funding that will be undertaken by the MPO and its member agencies each year.

The final, approved document is not yet available; however, draft document is available for review. The public review/comment period has commenced. Comments received on or before December 10, 2018, will be considered for the final 2019-2020 UPWP, to be presented to the SMTC Policy Committee for official adoption on December 11, 2018.

Those interested in reviewing the draft 2019-2020 UPWP document and/or making written comments regarding the UPWP should contact SMTC Director James D'Agostino, 126 N. Salina St., Suite 100, Syracuse, NY 13202. Copies of the draft 2019-2020 UPWP document can be requested by calling the SMTC at 315-422-5716 or can be reviewed in the SMTC office. Additionally, the document is available on the SMTC website at www.smtcmo.org. The public comment period is open through December 10, 2018.
